

ISARC GROUND SEARCH AND RESCUE Continuing Education Record

To Be Presented Every Three Years From Last GSAR

This form serves as an official record for continuing education credit renewing certification for Ground Search and Rescue Operations. Additional support documentation may be requested by a ISARC Training/Curriculum representative for the purpose of conducting recertification audits. Individuals recertifying via continuing education must have a minimum of 60 hours recorded in a three (3) year period. No more than 30 hrs of mission time may be recorded. Qualifying continuing education are missions, agency trainings, outside Search and Rescue related trainings, conferences and seminars. Conference and seminars are for the times of breakout sessions. If agency trainings, only the training times (not business meetings) are to be included.
